

"Listen, romance novels are not about quality..."

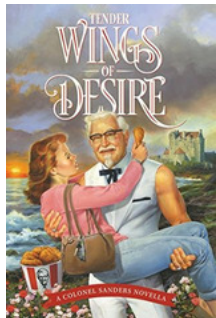

- Ilana, Getting Lit
Episode 2: #DukeProblems

How do you rate a book if not by its quality?

Longtime friends Wendy and Ilana take a critical approach to the patently unserious genre of romance novels. Armed with literary themed cocktails, Wendy and Ilana explore a new subgenre each month, and tackle themes such as reading romance novels while feminist, vampires vs. werewolves, #DukeProblems, laser guns of love, Amish guilt, and more.
